

1     Section 2-1500    TR-3 (Transitional Residential-3)

2     2-1501     Purpose and Intent.

3           (A)    The purpose and intent of the TR-3 district is to:

4                   (1)    Create a visual/spatial transition between the suburban area and the rural
5                            area of the County;

6                   (2)    Achieve a blend of rural and suburban development;

7                   (3)    Encourage new development designs that incorporate both suburban and
8                            rural features;

9                   (4)    Achieve a balance between the built and natural environment;

10                  (5)    Protect and integrate open space and natural resources; and

11                  (6)    Implement requirements that open space be provided in conjunction with 12                            ~~conservation design and other~~ the standards of this Ordinance.

13           (B)    TR-3UBF This sub-district establishes a minimum of 50% open space to be
14                            more compatible with adjacent suburban development.

15           (C)    TR-3LBR is created as a sub-district of TR-3 to reflect differing open space
16                            requirements. This sub-district establishes a minimum of 70% open space in 17                            order to be more compatible with rural development patterns in adjoining
18                            jurisdictions and to protect the environment and areas surrounding the Bull Run.

19           (D)    TR-3LF This sub-district establishes a minimum of 50% open space in order to 20                            be more compatible with adjacent suburban development.

21     2-1502     Use Regulations. Table 2-1502 summarizes the principal use regulations of the TR-3
22                            districts.

23           (A)    Organization of Use Table. Table 2-1502 organizes the uses in the TR-3 districts
24                            by Use Classifications, Use Categories and Use Types.

25                   (1)    Use Classifications. The Use Classifications are: residential uses;
26                            agricultural uses; public and institutional uses; commercial uses; and 27                            industrial uses. The Use Classifications provide a systematic basis for
28                            assigning present and future land uses into broad general classifications
29                            (e.g., residential uses and agricultural uses). The Use Classifications then 30                            organize land uses and activities into general “Use Categories” and 31                            specific “Use Types” based on common functional, product, or physical 32                            characteristics, such as the type and amount of activity, the type of customers or residents, how goods or services are sold or delivered, and site conditions.

(2) Use Categories. The Use Categories describe the major sub-groups of the Use Classification, based on common characteristics (e.g., the residential Use Classification is divided into two major Use Categories: Household Living and Group Living). Principal uses are identified in defining the Use Category. They are principal uses that most closely share the common characteristics that are key to the Use Category.

(3) Use Types. The Use Categories are then divided into specific Use Types. The specific Use Types are included in the respective Use Category. They identify the specific uses that are considered to fall within characteristics identified in the Use Category. For example, single family detached dwellings, multi-family dwellings and town houses are Use Types in the Household Living Use Category.

(B) Use Categories and Use Types Defined. All the Use Categories and Use Types listed in Table 2-1502 are defined in Article VIII (Definitions).

(C) Permitted and Special Exception Uses. A “P” in the column identified “TR-3” indicates that a Use Category or specific Use Type is permitted as a matter of right (as a permitted use) in the TR-3 districts, subject to compliance with all applicable standards and regulations in this Ordinance and all other County ordinances. An “S” indicates that a Use Type is allowed in the TR-3 districts as a special exception in accordance with the procedures and standards of Section 6-1300. In some instances, and based on the Additional Regulations for Specific Uses (Section 5-600), a Use Type will be permitted as a matter of right under certain conditions or allowed as a special exception under other conditions. In those instances, it is identified as “P/S.”

(D) Reference to General Use Category. References to “General Use Category” under the Use Type column, means all of the uses in the Use Category are allowed. The Use Category is defined in Article VIII. Where specific Use Types are listed in the Use Type column, only the listed Use Types in the Use Category are allowed. The Use Types are defined in Article VIII.

(E) Additional Regulations for Specific Uses. References to sections in the final column of Table 2-1502 (Additional Regulations for Specific Uses) indicate that the listed use is subject to use-specific regulations. The numbers provide a cross-reference to the “Additional Regulations for Specific Uses” in Section 5-600. All the Use Categories and Use Types listed in Table 2-1502 are defined in Article VIII (Definitions).
